

WINTER'S EVE

By Nox Arcana

21 Tracks, with a total running time of 1:06:09 min.

Nox Arcana returns to the dark and cold of a winter's night, or Eve as the title puts it. Like their previous Winter's Knight CD, this is not filled with the dark and gloomy sounds that they normally put out. But like their previous take on the winter season, the talent of Nox Arcana shows through no matter what theme they are creating. The beauty of their work is that it really can transcend genres. All of them have haunting and memorable melodies, that stay with you long after the CD is gone. But even more so than the melody that stays with you, it's the mood of the music. And that is the real talent of Nox Arcana.

With this CD, they continue their music for the winter season, filling our ears with soothing sounds of pianos, strings, and singing. Even when taking on traditional songs like Greensleeves, they put their little touch on it, but still gives us something calming and relaxing to listen to. Perfect for this time of year.
